Brownson Heads Student Government

Heading the Student Body this year was Fall President Nancy Brownson. Working along with Nancy were Lynn Pearson, vice president; Beth Cornell, recording secretary; Rita Goodman, financial secretary; and Cindy Powell, yell leader.

Listening to the ideas of all the people of the school, no matter how much in the corners they were, had a great deal of effect on the quality of the Student Body Meetings. Having the meetings every two weeks, kept people involved in more school activities.

Spirit Week this year, was again won by the Senior class, who were Patriots. The runner up Junior Juvies, ran a close second, followed by Sophomore 49er's and Freshmen Surfers .

Another well planned event was Homecoming Week. The week started off with all of the queen candidates participating in a pie eating contest which ended up in a fighting mess. Later in the week, the candidates were dressed up by the owners, who bought them the day before, only to be dragged back and forth in an ice blocking contest at noontime.

Under the leadership of Tom Frankel, who served as Speaker, this years Fall Ad Board did most of its planning over the summer months. Lending Tom a helping hand were Greg Bongiovanni, Secretary, and Liz Everett, Vice Speaker.

Ad Boards' opening dance, "Since We're Neighbors, Let's Dance". was a huge success. Letting students in free with a student body card also promoted the sales of student body cards.

Even though the Bond Issue failed, Ad Board worked hard to try to pass it, and initiated the idea of noon time record dances.

Besides these accomplishments, hard working Ad Board took care of the regular business which keeps student government rolling along.

SCC Funnels Student Input Into Courses

The council was headed by Barb Jacak; David Robinson was vice chair-person. Minutes were taken by Greg Bongiovanni. Advisor for Student Curriculum Council is Barrry Conner. Meetings are held on alternate Wednesdays. Other members included are: Judy Ballard, Debbie Barker, Sandy Blount, Nancy Brownson, Rick Cooper, Becky Corral, Joy Creese, Anne Hasegawa, Lisa Hempy, Juanita Matsuoka, Terry Millican, Keith Van Sickle, Meredith Young, Susan Young, Mel Zundel.

Alameda High School's

This year the Christmas Pageant was held on December 11. Vocal, Instrumental, and Modern dance students performed at an 8:00 P.M. performance.

The Orchestra, directed by Carlton Hansen, presented "A Christmas Festival," "I'll Be Home For Christmas," and "The Christmas Song."

The choir sang "Ave Maria" which was directed by Mrs. Shirley Vidal.

As a change from last year, there was a brass ensemble directed by Dominic Vinceguerra. They played a variety of old and favorite Christmas carols.

Participating again this year were members of the modern dance classes. Directed by Maria Molnar, they presented "Christmas in Dance." As an added attraction, Patti Hanna of the San Francisco Ballet, was seen in "Variation du Ballet" from Serenade.

Like always, the Christmas Pageant was a successful event, and added Christmas spirit to Alameda High, and to the public which attended.

Within the band, about twenty members perform in a stage band, which plays jazz and pop.

Outstanding performances in band and orchestra were turned in by Nancy Brownson on cello, Emil Miland also on the cello, Scott Janusch who played the oboe, and Kendall Wilson who played the bassoon. Kim Varner served as an excellent student director, this past fall season, and also played the flute.

IN MEMORY OF EDISON B. AYRES

Arthur Rubinstein, the famous pianist, was asked recently the secret of his success-was it dedication, ability, discipline, hard work?

Mr. Rubinstein smiled as he remarked, "It's hard to say, but one thing I do know; IF YOU LOVE LIFE, LIFE WILL LOVE YOU BACK".

What a wonderful insight! That philosophy explains how a man of 83 can continue to be so creative. For life is simply filled with exciting blessings for everybody. THEY'RE OURS IF WE GIVE ENOUGH OF OURSELVES TO LIFE.

I believe the giving starts when we get up in the morning. One man I know begins everyday repeating some words from scripture such as, "WHEN I AWAKE I AM STILL WITH THEE". Then he talks more directly with his Maker, "LORD, YOU'VE WATCHED OVER ME THROUGH THE NIGHT. NOW HELP ME DO SOMETHING REALLY GREAT WITH THIS DAY".

Watch what happens to members of your family when you begin the day with a glow of good feeling and joy. They'll catch it too.

The same will hold true for the people you encounter all day long, in the office, at the restaurant, in the bus, in the elevator, at the grocery store or at your neighbors? Love life and life will love you back. Love people and they will love you back.

(The preceeding is taken from an article which Mr. Ayres always carried in his wallet. This is what he lived his life by.)

The season was marked by disappointment from the outset as top players Ron Collins missed the first 17 games because of an ineligibility and Jack Healy managed to play in but 11 of 24 games because of a football injury.

JV's Disappointing, Frosh Show Promise

Alameda's Junior Varsity and Frosh basketball teams suffered through losing seasons despite some impressive individual performances.

Gary Fenstermaker's JV's won its opener against Memorial but couldn't muster much success from then on. One problem was that the Varsity carried three Sophs and three Juniors on its 9 man squad.

Top players included Sophs Jonas Simon, Brian Renk, Peter Hayes and John Quintal; and Juniors Gary Veasy and Tony Vacca.

Coach John Fitzgerald did a super job as Frosh Mentor enabling the yearlings to play even with its ACAL opponents. Center Martin Dickenson and guard Hal Snider were the top scorers. Other starters included guard John Belmares and forwards David Jaber and John Sturman. Top substitutes were Whitney Gaunt, Chris Patton, and Rusty Quintana.

Competition will be intense next season when the current frosh challenge the older 10th and 11th graders for starting spots on the J.V.'s and Varsity.

Youthful Varsity Proves Powerful in ACAL Play

Alameda High's baseball team battled all year for an A.C.A.L. playoff berth.

Coach Leroy Bernadou thought the teams success was as a result of "good hitting and pitching strength.

"We had fine pitchers all year. Last year at the start of the season we had just one," commented Bernadou.

Junior Ray Quintana headed the mound staff composed of seniors Tim White, Harry Rogers, Eugene Sonido, and sophmore Bob Takamura.

The starting line up included four juniors, two seniors and two sophomores. Senior third basemen Mark Ironside and second basemen Brett Conners and Tony Vaca anchored the infield also including junior Mike Cooper at short stop and sophomore Mark Regan at first.

The catching spot was anchored by Toby Chavez, and Bob McLaughlin.

Bernadou was aided by assistant coach Archie Lowry.

Defense Pitching Aids J.V. Baseball Success

Strong pitching and a tight defense enabled the J.V. baseball team to finish the '75 season with a winning record.

Heading the mound corps were starters Martin Dickenson, Pete Michaleto, and Charlie Neiderbrach and relief specialists Terry Pieczonka, Rusty Quintana, Steve Garrett and John Belmares.

Defense was bolstered by the play of shortstop Mike Hanson, second baseman Don Laviolette, catcher Bert Soffioto and outfielders Robert Holt, Art Fuentes, Terry Pieczonka, Henry Amargo, Ricky Silveira, and Bob Hanson.

Dickenson and Neiderbrach shared first base duties when not pitching while Jaime Hyame filled in at third base for Michaleto when he was in the mound.

Varsity Track Team Rolls To 7th Consecutive Winning Season

Coming off third place in the Southern ACAL in 1974, the Alameda track team had another successful season. By winning most of their dual meets, they had a chance of winning the ACAL this year. Under the direction of Mike Kern, Gary Fenstermaker and Head Coach Bill Thompson the Hornets were a top contender.

Doing an excellent job on the long distance running were Mike Sigmon, David Acosta, Danny Mills and Ray Kindle.

Proving their outstanding ability in pole vaulting, Steve Mullen and Dan Thompson returned for another season.

Leading the sprinting and middle distance running were Mark Richards, Dave Sabo and Ron Arnerich.

An outstanding performance was turned in by Jesse Brewer in the high hurdles, low hurdles, high jump, and the triple jump.

"B" Spikers Help Develop Young Athletes For the Future

Alameda's B track team had an impressive season in 1975. The Hornet underclassmen led by Glen Cortez, Steve Freitas and Mike Roberts excelled in the field events. John Ung and Mario Quintero led the sprinters with outstanding efforts.

Top distance men were Ray Kindle and Glen Hansen. Outstanding female stars were Stew Ogle, Kim Coler-Dark, Pat Price and freshman Kathy Way. Their efforts aided the Hornets immensely.

The Hornet B's showed great strength for a strong Varsity team next year. The coaches, Thompson, Kern, and Fenstermaker, did a fantastic job with these young men and women.

Tennis Team Paced By Females

The AHS Tennis Team got off to a great start in the league season winning almost all of their ACAL matches. The team is still improving and looking forward to a strong team in a couple years. Many of the strong players are sophomores and juniors.

The top three players are nationally ranked. A few of the outstanding athletes include: Matt Murphy, Cindi Payne, Char Murphy, Pam Baughman, Randall Lee, Diana Souza, Jacques Bernou, Brian Richards, Doug Buettner and Anne Hasegawa.

Cindi Payne and Char Murphy won all of their league matches. Both girls have won their block letters in tennis.

Pam Baughman was out for the first few matches because of a back injury.

New members include: Karen Nelson, David Hall, Tracy Wong, Bob Doumitt and Libby Forrester.

At the tournament they gained a tie for fifth place. Outstanding were goalie Bill Whitton, and Aaron Placourakis who was named to the All Tournament team.

Adding depth to this year's team were John Placourakis, Bob Follrath, and George DeBoever.

They also placed second in the All American meet and third in Northern California. Coaches Mary Curry and Ash Jones were impressed with the competitiveness of the freshmen swimmers and surprised more seniors didn't return for another season. Outstanding swimmers included Ellen Steele, Pam Williams, Renee Bernadou and Becky Williams.

Leading the intermediates was Enita Mullen. In her 2nd year, Cyndi Whitmore was one of the stronger beginners. Starting her 1st year off well, Carol Nelson was in the top ten in a sectional meet.

The moral of the team was kept high by Captain Susan Eichleberger. Helping the new coaches out were managers Stephanie Conner and Pam Johnson.

Officers Demonstrate Leadership Ability

This year's Junior class, led by Phil Camicia in the fall, and Greg McFann in the spring, had an enjoyable year.

A raffle was held in the fall to raise money for the Junior Prom. The Junior Prom, held at the Claremont Hotel in February, was very successful.

To bring in more money for their senior year, the Juniors held a candy sale after the Prom.

The AHS sophomores kept busy this year beginning with the soph Hop in December and ending with a candy sale in May. Candy was sold from the American Candy Company in connection with Mother's Day.

Two car washes were also held. The first one in April was so successful that another one was held in May. These greatly helped the sophomores financially.
